Grief & Bereavement Support

You may be experiencing feelings of sadness and helplessness on your journey to cope with grief and loss. Our Grief and Bereavement support program offers a range of services designed to help the bereaved manage their grieving emotions and maintain a normal life during this difficult time.

If you or someone you know is experiencing grief and loss, we encourage you to contact us for more information about the services we provide.

Goals

- To provide community education to raise awareness within the Chinese community about life and death.
- To alleviate the grief experienced by caregivers and families when a loved one has passed away, is facing a terminal illness, or receiving palliative care.

No Service Charge

Services

- Community education on life and death(e.g., end-of-life care, funeral planning, advance care planning, etc)
- Community Resource Navigation, Supportive Counseling, Therapeutic Groups, and Service Referrals
